

BEVERLY

I'm sure my parents will side with me. That man's a monster.

DOCTOR NESBIT

It sounds like you hold a lot of anger in your heart. Maybe you're right not to bring this child into your home.

BEVERLY

And what do you mean by that?

DOCTOR NESBIT

You know what I mean. Quite frankly young lady I've seen this behavior before and you'll only end up in the gutter.

BEVERLY

What!

DOCTOR NESBIT

Next it will be drugs, drink, prostitution. You name it, and you'll be there.

BEVERLY

This is ridiculous, I want a second opinion.

Doctor Nesbit presses the intercom button on his desk.

DOCTOR NESBIT

SALLY, please come in here.

Sally knocks on the door briefly before opening and peering in.

START

SALLY

You asked for me Doctor?

DOCTOR NESBIT

Sally, this young lady wants to have an abortion without telling her parents and the father. What is your opinion?

Sally walks into the office to stand side on with Doctor Nesbit's desk.

SALLY

Strictly speaking from a non-medical standing. I think she should let everyone know what is going on.

DOCTOR NESBIT
See, what did I tell you?

SALLY
But it's her body, so it's her choice.
